COMIC CON, GIFTS, AND MOM

EDITOR'S note

Well, we're back from another banner year at Comic Con International San Diego! By all accounts, the PREVIEWS booth was once again a hub of activity that drew crowds all week long. From our toy displays to guest stars like DMC of Run/DMC fame, the PREVIEWS booth was always buzzing with activity.

Hopefully you were one of the lucky people who decided to heed my words and venture up to Room 8 in the Convention Center to take part in our PREVIEWS panel discussion. Andy Mueller, Diamond's Consumer Marketing Manager, hosted the panel, explaining what this catalog is, how to use it, and how to maybe even get into it. I was there too, along with my buddy Vince Brusio, editor of our PREVIEWSworld website. The turnout was by no means at capacity, but at least half the audience left with an action figure, statue or game… and everyone left with a free copy of PREVIEWS. We'd like to do another panel again next year, and hopefully the folks who came out for this year's panel will tell their friends, and we can give away more goodies!

And speaking of giving stuff away, this month's theme is of course, Gift Ideas! We feature this theme every year right around this time to coincide with the November-shipping items, stuff arriving just in time for the prime holiday shopping season. Throughout this issue we've got plenty of great items that would make perfect gifts for anyone in your world, and we've got some great suggestions over on our FlipSide feature too. And don't forget to order the PREVIEWS Holiday Gift Guide, the latest issue is offered on page 23 of this issue, and is jam-packed with plenty of great items!

I can't believe it's already September (well, it's technically the first week of August as I write this), where did the summer go? I hope you all got a chance to get away or get out of town, even for a weekend, to enjoy the summer while it lasts. Before we know it, it'll be fall and we'll be looking forward to Halloween, turkeys, and those chilly evenings that lie ahead of us. So while the "heat" is still on out there, get out and enjoy it while you can!

On a final note, please send some good thoughts and positive vibes to my mom, Margarete. She recently had her right knee replaced with a bright shiny new metal one and she's facing a few weeks of therapy following the procedure. But she's a tough lady! She lived through WW2 and came to America from Germany with my pop in the 1950s to start a new life, and I have every confidence that she'll be up again in no time!

Thanks for reading PREVIEWS, and I'll see you here again next month!

RENAE DE LIZ

Renae De Liz: In her own words…

I am a professional artist (and now writer) of comic books, living in Portland, Maine. I started getting into comics when I was around 9 or 10 when I picked up a Betty & Veronica comic in the check-out of a grocery store. I was instantly hooked, and my interests spread to all types of stories (anime, superhero, fantasy, horror). Eventually I started drawing my own stories, and I knew pretty quickly that this was what I wanted to do for the rest of my life. I always loved to draw, but here was a way to completely tell a story visually all by myself (versus animation or videogames in which you often need to work with teams). I became obsessed with drawing comics through all my teen years. When all the kids were outside playing, I was inside drawing a story about dragon hunters. After a while, I let others convince me nothing good would come of my love of drawing comics, and quit drawing for almost five years after high school to try get a "real career". Luckily I found my way back to drawing and never stopped again. I've been doing this professionally for about eight years now, and am having the time of my life!

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

The Last Unicorn, Peter Pan, and Sonic the Hedgehog were the most amazing because those are stories/characters from my childhood that I'm deeply attached to. Working on something I'm passionate about is definitely the way to go. I'm a pretty emotionally driven artist, so I tend to do my best work when I truly care about the story. When you love what you're working on, you enjoy every second of it.

I was also Project Manager of Womanthology, which is a for Charity book funded on Kickstarter. It was the most challenging project I've ever had (by FAR!), but there were so many amazing things I experienced from it that it will always be something very special to me.

What are you currently working on?

I'm just finishing up Volume 1 of my creator-owned adaptation of the original Peter Pan novel, which I funded through Kickstarter. And I'm also currently working on two other big projects for major publishers that are yet unannounced… so I can't say what they are yet! But I am so SO excited about them!

What fun titles are you reading right now?

I've been having fun re-reading old favorites from my teen years, like Bone, Strangers in Paradise, The Maxx, Magic Knight Rayearth and Gen13. My tastes are pretty broad in comics, but the art must be expressive for me to really like it!

TONY STARK FINDS A NEW ATTITUDE IN SUPERIOR IRON MAN

■ MARVEL PREVIEWS, $X.XX, XX PAGES

Tony Stark has always known he is one of the Marvel Universe's smartest humans. The CEO of Stark Industries, he holds a portfolio of patents worth billions, many of them developed as he designed and refined his Iron Man armor over the years. Life and experience tempered Tony's arrogant certitude of his gifts, until recent events have transformed Tony Stark into a man without an ounce of humility. Now, he has a gift for humanity, a gift that humanity will take whether it wants it or not, in Tom Taylor and Yildiray Çinar's new series for Marvel Comics, Superior Iron Man!

Arising from events in Avengers & X-Men: Axis, Tony Stark has relocated to San Francisco, and the City by the Bay will become the testing ground for his experiment in creating a technological utopia. If the human body poses an engineering problem of design and disease, Stark will reengineer it to be stronger and sturdier. The city's populace is given access to Stark's Extremis technology, and soon their bodies will be upgraded to make them smarter, faster, hardier, more resilient, more perfect. Creating a post-human population in one of America's major cities will not come easily, and Tony Stark will soon find himself and his plans in conflict with an unexpected opponent — Daredevil!

But San Francisco is not the only thing changed by Stark's project. Stark himself has a new attitude. He knows that he has humanity's best interests at heart, and even more he knows that he can push himself to his limits and beyond. He is determined to make himself into a better Iron Man, a superior Iron Man. And woe to anyone who stands in his way!

Writer Tom Taylor and artist Yildiray Çinar join forces for this new chapter in Tony Stark's life. Iron Man is relaunched with a new setting, new challenges, and a new attitude for the Avengers NOW! in October's Superior Iron Man!

IN THE WAKE OF AVENGERS & X-MEN: AXIS, TONY STARK TRANSFORMS SAN FRANCISCO INTO A TECHNO-UTOPIA!

DISCOVER IMAGE'S HUGO AWARD-WINNING SAGA IN A NEW EDITION

Two years ago Image Comics began publishing one of the most innovative and acclaimed comics of recent years — Brian K. Vaughan and Fiona Staples' Saga. Set against the backdrop of an interstellar war, Saga is the tale of lovers from opposite sides in the conflict who choose to put aside the conflict and raise a family. Compared to Game of Thrones and Star Wars, Saga quickly cemented itself as a must-read title and earned the Hugo Award for Best Graphic Story.

In November Image Comics releases the Saga Book One Deluxe Hardcover. In addition to its striking cover artwork, this 500-page volume collects the first 18 issues of Saga as well as behind-the-scenes material includes sketches, scripts, and interviews. The Saga hardcover deserves a place on the bookshelf for long-time fans, and it provides new readers a comprehensive entry point to the acclaimed series!

New York City, late 1970s. Times Square is a haven for sex and drugs. The city teeters on the verge of bankruptcy, while blackouts can strike at any moment. This is the world of THE KITCHEN.

The Irish gangs of Hell's Kitchen rule the neighborhood, bringing terror to the streets and doing the dirty work for the Italian Mafia. Jimmy Brennan and his crew were the hardest bastards in the Kitchen, but after they're all put in prison, their wives – Kath, Raven and Angie – decide to keep running their rackets. And once they get a taste of the fast life and easy money, it won't be easy to stop.

THE KITCHEN takes one of the most popular genres in entertainment and, like The Sopranos, reimagines it for a new generation to present a classic gangster story told from a fresh point of view.

Written by talented newcomer Ollie Masters with stunning art by Ming Doyle (Mara) and killer covers by Becky Cloonan (GOTHAM ACADEMY, Killjoys, DEMO), THE KITCHEN is not to be missed.

Long considered to be prime examples of late 1940s' "headlight" and "Good Girl" art comics, issues of Junior and Sunny have been quite difficult to find and very expensive to obtain. Until now!

Created, written, and illustrated by the legendary E.C. Comics artist/writer/editor Al Feldstein, The Complete Junior and Sunny presents the full run of these comics, along with a historical introduction by Grant Geissman. Although the stories are charming, "typical teenage" period pieces, Feldstein's artwork often pushes the envelope for the time, with titillating covers and often-suggestive images in the stories themselves.

Volume Six presents the second year of George Herriman's much-lauded pre-Krazy Kat masterpiece.

As Tarr's sinister plan is revealed, it's up to Barry to save heroes and civilians alike. Including Greg -- who's kinda, sorta both. WHAT HARM COULD ONE OLD REECIAN STABLEWOMAN DO TO THIS, THE MOST MIGHTY SUPERCOMPLEX OF BLOODY AND GLORIOUS TROIIA?
EVERY SCANNER, EVERY SENSOR, EVERY PAIR OF EYES WITHIN TROIIA-VIIa CONFIRMED HER TALE.

THEY KILLED HER.
THE TROIIAN SENATORS AND SCIENTISTS SCATTERED SINANE TO BITS WITHIN THEIR HELLCHAMBERS.
HER SCREAMS AND HER BLOOD SEEMED TO GO ON FOREVER BUT IN TIME THERE WAS ONLY THE SILENCE THAT AWAITS ALL WOMEN.
AND STILL SINANE TOLD THEM NOTHING OF WILY ODYSSIA.
THE DEBATE RAGED ABOUT HER SHIP AND THE DEAD SIEGE BEAST THAT FLOATED THERE OUTSIDE THE IMPENETRABLE GATES.
THE SECRETS HER SHIP COULD REVEAL. THE HIDDEN MYSTERIES OF GENETICS AND ENGINEERING THE DEMON-HORSE CONTAINED.
ONLY A FEW RESISTED. ONE SUFFERED AS SINANE HAD SUFFERED ALTHOUGH NO CAUSE WAS FOUND.
THE OTHER, CASSAN--
--WELL, THAT TALE WILL COME ANOTHER TIME.
THEY IGNORED CASSAN.
THE SHIP, AND THE GREAT SIEGE BEAST, WAS BROUGHT INTO TROIIA-VIIa AND AT LONG LAST REECIA HAD PENETRATED TROIIAN WALLS.

The world of sixteen-year-old Jeremy Duncan revolves around his insatiable "growing boy" appetite, lip-locking with squeeze Sarah, keeping his jerry-rigged vehicle roadworthy, and playing with his band, Goat Cheese Pizza. Somewhere in the background, he's vaguely aware of some muted voices, constantly beseeching him to pick up his Matterhorn-sized clothes pile, to be home on time (so lame!), and to (God forbid!) communicate with them. The disembodied voices are those of Connie and Walt, his mostly patient, but sometimes frustrated to exploding, parents. MOOMIN DELUXE ANNIVERSARY EDITION HC IN SLIPCASE

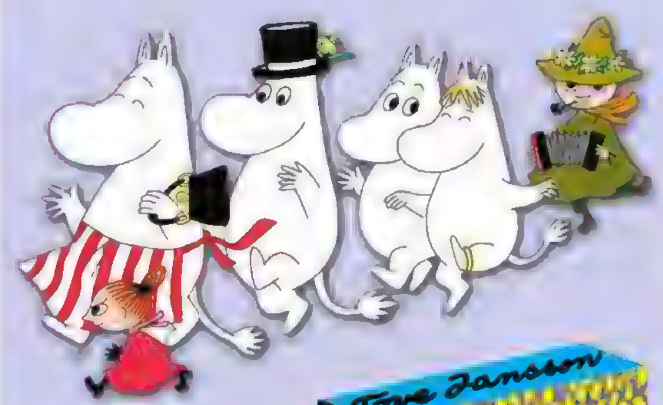
Drawn & Quarterly



Tove Jansson
MOOMIN

There is so much to learn about Moomin. Important things like: Moomin is a troll; Moomin loves The Snork Maiden who's very similar to a troll; and Moomin lives with his parents MoominMamma and MoominPappa who are -- but should not have been assumed to be -- also trolls.

These key facts will surely help the uninitiated, but too much more explanation tends to bog down the simple joy of these comics. It would be like trying to define Peanuts, Calvin and Hobbes, or Totoro. Once you have the names and relationships, their creator has done such a masterful job making the characters play on paper that it's just best to let the characters speak for themselves with their own wonderful, quirky, honest voices.

Drawn and Quarterly must agree with my assessment, because after releasing 20 different, sparkling Moomin volumes over the past 7 years (all still in print!), they're bringing forth an amazing new collection: the Moomin Deluxe Anniversary Edition hardcover. It's all in celebration of Moomin's fabulously talented creator, Tove Jansson. It's been 100 years since her birth and this collection pulls together more than 450 pages of her life's work. Recognized internationally as a children's author of the highest order, she was also an author, illustrator, and satirist. Her Moomin career began during the Second World War, when she was determined to create something that brought happiness. And what happiness!

Come pick up a collection full of happiness in special happiness slipcover and join myself and Drawn and Quarterly in wishing Tove Jansson a very happy centenary!

DARK GODS

The human race lives in ignorance of the universe we live in.

This is a mercy.

I don't mean that as just a set up for fiction. We live on a tiny ball of rock hurtling through a universe that is unfathomably large. We are the product, each of us, of an uncountable number of unlikely coincidences. We are alive because that driver got started a minute later one day and didn't blow through that red light when we were there.

That is the universe we live in. It is vast, it is only marginally predictable, and it is the only one we have. And our ability to live in it is based on our ability to not understand the fundamental chaos that underpins it. We live in blissful ignorance because that's pretty much the only way to actually live.

We need to believe in an orderly universe in order to survive.

Gods and monsters are an artifact of that urge. There were things our ancestors understood, things they could see, patterns in the noise. This was the day-to-day knowledge of life. But they were also aware that there were things they couldn't explain. Why did the storms come? Why did the plagues strike? Why did evil happen?

Humans are not good at having no explanation, and if none presents itself, we will create one. Because any explanation, any order imposed on the chaos is better than none. So we created gods to impose an order on the world that we could understand, even if we could not control it.

Nightmare: Order Incv

Dark Gods is about chaos. Dark Gods is about a universe where the order we impose on chaos is slowly stripped away, and we're made to see just how deep and dark reality runs. Because the chaos is aware and alive, and it wants into our orderly universe. When we created the gods, we gave them a way in.

The chaos faded. And now it is coming back. The abyss is staring up at us, and it is hungry.

About: Mankind prayed for salvation. As the gods of mythology fought and destroyed around them, they hoped and spoke in hushed tones of the return of the Christian God. Now Jesus Christ has risen and once again walks among mortals. But thousands of years of recounting the stories of the Bible won't prepare people for the truth about the All Powerful. They believed that Jesus was the savior of the human race and that he would return to do so again. Now the Son of God has come back but his salvation comes at the most horrific of prices. The most audacious arc of God Is Dead has arrived as MIKE COSTA delivers the intensity and darkness in a world of divine wrath. HOWARD NOSTRAND'S NIGHTMARES

IDW Publishing

When you think of horror comics, the gory days of the EC Comics come to mind for many older fans, in some Creepy and Eerie magazines, while House of Mystery and The Witching Hour scared readers decades later. In all cases scary stories were illustrated by some of the biggest names in comic book history. Classic stories were illustrated by artists like Jack Davis, Graham Ingels, Steve Ditko, Bob Powell, and Howard Nostrand, an artist that made you want to read the Harvey comics horror tales.

My first real knowledge of Howard Nostrand was reading the graphic story magazine featuring an interview with him. At that point I began looking for comics with his work, much like how I got hooked on Alex Toth. Nostrand's style was a mix of the Jack Davis cartoony style but with a darkness and moody feeling associated with Wood, Lee Elias, and Bob Powell. While some consider him the king of the swipes, Nostrand could take other artists' ideas and make them uniquely his own.

While there have been other publications that have reprinted some of Nostrand's work, this edition is reproduced from the original art, no small feat given the age of these stories. If you look at the quality of the IDW Artist Editions then you know what the quality of this book will be.

Howard Nostrand's Nightmares from IDW Publishing is a welcome addition to a library already filled with archives of EC Comics, ACG, Fiction House, and Harvey Horror collections.

WHY WE LOVE IT

You know all those conspiracy theories you hear about? Like how the Jonestown Massacre was a failed MKULTRA experiment by the government, or how Lee Harvey Oswald was trained and brainwashed to be an assassin? Well, what if some of those were true? DEEP STATE is a dream (nightmare?) come true for conspiracy theory nuts including all of us at BOOM!

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT

With LUTHER STRODE, DEAD BODY ROAD, and SPREAD, Justin Jordan has become one of the eminent voices in hard-hitting, intelligent, original comics, and Ariela Kristantina (DEATH OF WOLVERINE) brings her unique, idiosyncratic style that has made her a breakout talent. If you're even remotely interested in conspiracy theory stories from comics like PLANETARY and SLEEPER to films like ENEMY OF THE STATE and THREE DAYS OF THE CONDOR, you'll be gripped by DEEP STATE!

WHAT IT'S ABOUT

John Harrow doesn't exist, and his job is to make sure that other things don't exist, too. At any given time, the government is running dozens of black book operations, experiments that aren't on any official record and are never acknowledged to exist. Some of these are innocuous. Some of them are monstrous beyond reason. And most of the time, they go as expected and the public is never the wiser. Most of the time. John Harrow's job is to handle them when things go wrong, and do anything to make sure the government's secrets stay just that—secret.

> WHY WE LOVE IT

You say your crime noir story is based on a group of hard-boiled policemen during 1950s Los Angeles that did a little wetwork under the table, ridding the city of its scummiest residents one lowlife at a time? And it features the art debut of Russ Manning Award for Most Promising Newcomer nominee Vanesa R. Del Rey? Oh, we're so there.

> WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT

Noir crime fiction is a part of Americana, from the writing of James Ellroy and Raymond Chandler to the films of Orson Welles and Alfred Hitchcock. HIT joins titles like TORSO, CRIMINAL, and GOTHAM CENTRAL as a grand contribution to crime noir comics.

> WHAT IT'S ABOUT

They say the eyes are the window to the soul. You look at Harvey Slater and you'll see a homicide detective chasing cigarettes with a few fingers of bourbon. You look into his eyes, and you'll see a hitman who spends his nights making "untouchable" criminals disappear for the Los Angeles Police Department. But all it takes is a blonde bombshell from his past and a crime syndicate trying to muscle in while Mickey Cohen's in prison to open Slater's eyes to who he really is. Collects the complete four-issue limited series, features the never-before-seen short story, "Bonnie," and includes an introduction by author Duane Swierczynski.

$3.99 | 32 PAGES | FULL COLOR

WHY WE LOVE IT

BOOM! has a long history with PLANET OF THE APES and for good reason: we love these damn dirty apes. Serving as a perfect tableau to examine society's ills through the lens of science fiction, we were thrilled to explore these themes in the modern setting of the new films.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT

Michael Moreci (CURSE, HOAX HUNTERS) and Dan McDaid (MIND THE GAP) bring the hard-bitten world of DAWN OF THE PLANET OF THE APES to life dealing with both classic and modern POTA questions of what the true meaning of "society" is, and if being "civilized" is even possible in a world wracked with strife. Great for fans of end-of-the-world stories like 12 MONKEYS, THE ROAD, and CHILDREN OF MEN.

WHAT IT'S ABOUT

Bridging the 10-year gap between the RISE OF THE PLANET OF THE APES and DAWN OF THE PLANET OF THE APES films, fans will bear witness to the fall of humanity and the rise of Caesar's civilization. While the apes of the world have yet to advance as a species, Caesar must find a way to unify them to one cause. On the other side of the country, Malcom must venture into the decaying Americas with his family to find a cure for the plague slowly killing his wife, Rita. World powers will shift as civilizations collapse and rise.

Featuring a story by Oscar Award-Winning Writer/Director, and Django creator Quentin Tarantino, and award-winning writer/artist/creator Matt Wagner! The official sequel to Django Unchained in the first-ever comic book sequel ever done of a Tarantino film!

Set several years after the events of Django Unchained, Django/Zorro #1 finds Django again pursuing the evil that men do in his role as a bounty hunter. Since there's a warrant on his head back east, he's mainly been plying his trade in the western states. After safely settling his wife, Broomhilda, near Chicago, he's again taken to the road, sending her funds whenever he completes a job. It's by sheer chance that he encounters the aged and sophisticated Diego de la Vega – the famed Zorro – and soon finds himself fascinated by this unusual character, the first wealthy white man he's ever met who seems totally unconcerned with the color of Django's skin… and who can hold his own in a fight. He hires on as Diego's "bodyguard" for one adventure and is soon drawn into a fight to free the local indigenous people from a brutal servitude, discovering that slavery isn't exclusive to black folks. In the course of this adventure, he learns much from the older man (much like King Schultz) and, on several occasions, even dons the mask and the whip… of The Fox!

Drawn & Quarterly is joining the festivities by releasing Moomin: The Deluxe Anniversary Edition, a slipcased, hardcover collection of the complete Tove Jansson-penned Moomin comic strip, replete with all of her most popular storylines and original pencil sketches. Included are Ware's frustrated doodles for his book covers, angry personal assaults on friends, half-finished comic strips, and lengthy and tiresome fulminations of personal disappointments both social and sexual, as well as his now-beloved drawings of the generally miserable inhabitants of the city of Chicago. THE LEG
The Remarkable Reappearance Of Santa Anna's Disembodied Limb

Top Shelf Productions

Writer Van Jensen (Pinocchio Vampire Slayer) and artist Jose Pimienta (A Friendly Game) team up to give comics fans an atypical and action-packed Wild West adventure centered around an unlikely hero, the disembodied leg of the immensely famous Mexican president, Santa Ana. Follow the leg (yes, just the leg) as he combats cantankerous criminals and battles brutish brujas in a mission to save the current Mexican president and atone for the notorious actions that his corporeal body was known for at the end of his life and political career.

Beautifully crafted, The Leg is a story that seamlessly blends history, the supernatural, and fiction into a colorful whirlwind of graphic narration that is a fun (and at many times touching) adventure story. Regardless if you are familiar or not with Santa Ana's fight to gain Mexico's independence from Spain or his pivotal role in the Mexican War, this is a graphic novel that anyone can enjoy simply because it is a solid story with some of the most striking and emotive coloring I have seen in a long-time. Van Jensen and Jose Pimienta take an unlikely protagonist and truly put together a wonderful book that is perfect for anyone looking for something a little different than the typical comic fare!

THE LEG

Top Shelf Productions

Writer Van Jensen (Pinocchio Vampire Slayer) and artist Jose Pimienta (A Friendly Game) team up to give comics fans an atypical and action-packed Wild West adventure centered around an unlikely hero, the disembodied leg of the immensely famous Mexican president, Santa Ana. Follow the leg (yes, just the leg) as he combats cantankerous criminals and battles brutish brujas in a mission to save the current Mexican president and atone for the notorious actions that his corporeal body was known for at the end of his life and political career.

Beautifully crafted, The Leg is a story that seamlessly blends history, the supernatural, and fiction into a colorful whirlwind of graphic narration that is a fun (and at many times touching) adventure story. Regardless if you are familiar or not with Santa Ana's fight to gain Mexico's independence from Spain or his pivotal role in the Mexican War, this is a graphic novel that anyone can enjoy simply because it is a solid story with some of the most striking and emotive coloring I have seen in a long-time. Van Jensen and Jose Pimienta take an unlikely protagonist and truly put together a wonderful book that is perfect for anyone looking for something a little different than the typical comic fare!

by Walt Kelly; edited by Carolyn Kelly

$45.00 / HC / 368 pgs / PC / 7.25 x 10.5

Pogo Volume 3 contains all of the dailies and all 104 full-color Sunday strips from 1953 and 1954, presented in lush full color for the first time since their original appearance 60 years ago. Walt Kelly's sly political humor is at the fore, featuring perhaps his most controversial creation Simple J. Malarkey, a thinly veiled swipe at Senator Joe McCarthy, along with all of the usual swamp denizens — plus in-depth "Swamp Talk" historical annotations by R.C. Harvey, spectacular samples of Kelly's work scanned from original art, and a whole lot more!

THE LATE CHILD AND OTHER ANIMALS

by Marguerite Van Cook and James Romberger

$29.99 / HC / 180 pgs / FC / 8 x 10

Created by the team responsible for the acclaimed 7 Miles A Second, legendary poet Marguerite Van Cook and artist James Romberger (Post York) present a generational autobiography of Hetty and her daughter Marguerite. Set against the backdrop of post WWII Britain and France and linked in five episodes that veer between lyricism, wry wit, and harrowing suspense, it tells of the journeys and struggles over decades of this mother and daughter.

SAM ZABEL AND THE MAGIC PEN

by Dylan Horrocks

$29.99 / HC / 210 pgs / FC 7 x 10

Cartoonist Sam Zabel spends his days staring at a blank piece of paper, unable to draw until one day he finds a mysterious old comic book and is transported on a fantastic journey through centuries of comics, stories, and imaginary worlds. Along with a pair of accomplices, Sam goes in search of the Magic Pen, encountering sex-crazed aliens, medieval monks, pirates, pixies and — of course — cartoonists. Funny, erotic, and thoughtful, Sam Zabel and the Magic Pen explores the pleasures, dangers and moral consequences of fantasy.

DUNGEON TWILIGHT VOLUME 4: HIGH SEPTENTRION & THE END OF DUNGEON GN

(W) Joann Sfar, Lewis Trondheim
(A) Alfred, Mazan

In "High Septentrion," there has been a violent eruption on the planet of Terra Amata. It's a scramble to find breathable air, but the wizened blind, mystical dragon the Dust King (Marvin) thinks that it is perhaps time for him to die heroically. However the feisty young Marvin the Red refuses to give up and plans to find a way out of this mess, including finding a way to actually breathe. And in "The End of Dungeon," the more the islets of the planet Terra Amata move upward, the less there is of breathable oxygen. While Marvin the Red and Zakutu, daughter of the Grand Khân, attempt to protect the seven objects of Destiny, Herbert and the Dust King are forced to swear allegiance to the Black Entity in order to gain access to breathable air. We are witness to the very end of Dungeon! (STK654706) (C: 0-0-1)

Why I Killed Peter

O/A WHY I KILLED PETER GN

(W/A/CA) Alfred Ka, Oliver Ka
By the artist on the new Dungeon Twilight 4! "Peter was a populist priest. He was cool. He was funny. He was no priest, just a regular guy. It's like I had another uncle. A great one, who laughed, who sang, who tickled. Until he took us for summer camp. Until we were so close, temptation came in the picture." Based on a true story that the writer experienced himself, this graphic novel presents very simply the grey areas in such a situation, how he had tucked the whole episode deep within him but then how his rage and self-pity let it all out and finally revisiting the man when close to death and his coming to grips. A moving, topical, and important work, sensitively presented. (STK379190)

Do you have a penchant for wise-cracking, Indian Jones type treasure hunters? Perhaps you are a pulp-era adventure kind of comic reader who likes no nonsense dames, super-secret societies, and enough action and intrigue to keep you turning pages? Or maybe you are simply looking for a new supernatural mystery that builds upon Bram Stoker's groundbreaking vampire novel? Well, Silver is all this… and more!

Follow quick-witted con-man James Finnigan and his team (including Van Helsing's granddaughter Rosalynd Sledge) as they search for Count Dracula's greatest mythical treasure, The Silver Dragon! Fans of the Indiana Jones films and Tomb Raider video game series will quickly take a liking to Stephan Franck's quick-paced, action-packed writing, and his heavy inked, atmospheric Mignola-esque art style will easily transport you into the 1930s world that he has created for his eclectic group of vampire fighting treasure hunters.

If you are looking for action, adventure, and danger (as well as some clever humor) this is a book I would pick up and publisher I would keep an eye out for!

ROY THOMAS PRESENTS
FRANKENSTEIN

ROY THOMAS PRESENTS: DICK BRIEFER'S FRANKENSTEIN: 1948-52 HC
(W) Roy Thomas, Dick Briefer
(A/CA) Dick Briefer
Dick Briefer's Frankenstein is widely regarded as being America's first ongoing horror series. Indeed, it was Briefer's work that probably caused the creature to be actually named as Frankenstein instead of the nameless monstrosity from Shelley's novel. Splitting the stories between two stools-humor and horror-Briefer's tales are absorbing and unsettling in equal parts. Some of the humorous material has already been reprinted, though not necessarily in order nor in total. Until now, of course! Collects Frankenstein #16-21 (November/December 1948 to October/November 1952) (STK654133) (C: 0-1-0)
HC, 7x10, 240pgs, FC $47.99

They're all here — Flint Baker, Reef Ryan, The Space Rangers, Gale Allen, Star Pirate, Mysta of the Moon, Norge Benson, plus many more and a bevy of the most scantily-clad females you're likely to see! ROY THOMAS PRESENTS: SHEENA, QUEEN OF THE JUNGLE VOLUME 3 SLIPCASE EDITION
(W) Roy Thomas (A) Robert Webb, Alex A. Blum
She may still be everyone's favourite yellow-tressed leopard-skin-clad Jungle Jane but, having made her first appearance almost 80 years ago (courtesy of Will Eisner and 'Jerry' Iger in the British mag Wags #1), Sheena, Queen of the Jungle could be forgiven for being somewhat less spritely swinging through the trees righting wrongs and wielding her knife. In 1938, she made it Stateside with her first showing in Jungle Comics #1 where she settled happily in every issue (plus a decade in her own title) until April 1953. There have been other incarnations, of course, but it's this classic material that strikes at the very heart of Good Girl Art! Collects Sheena: Queen of the Jungle issues #11-18 (Spring 1951 to Winter 1952). (STK654132) (C: 0-1-1)

Brought together for the first time in a single volume, lost classics from recent decades of underground and independent British and American comic-strip art, including outrageous sex stories of trendsetting Vice.com founder Gavin MacInnes (PERVERT), the miraculous-in-the-mundane diary comics of John Welding (Goathland), and Paul O'Connell's chilling yet darkly funny cut-ups, The Sound of Drowning. Also Through the Habitrails, the little-known masterpiece by Jeff Nicholson, early work from publishing sensation Craig Thompson (creator of Blankets and Habibi). DJANGO / ZORRO #1

Dynamite Entertainment

Tarantino's Django Unchained turned out to be yet another one of the filmmaker's many successful and critically acclaimed films in his mounting catalog of work. Dynamite Entertainment now brings comic fans the first (of hopefully many) all-new, original stories of the man named Django, and his first tale presents another familiar hero of the West.

When Django has a fateful encounter with the wealthy and mysterious Don Diego de la Vega, neither of them can fully comprehend the others' potential at first glance. In a short time, both Django and de la Vega (the man otherwise known as Zorro) will quickly realize that a partnership between the two could prove invaluable when it comes to taming the brutality of the Wild West. De La Vega, a man on a mission to find corruption, will hire Django, a man without a path, to seek out De La Vega's next target for justice.

Django creator Quentin Tarantino teams with famed comic writer Matt Wagner to bring back both heroes to the world of comics with the team-up you never saw coming. For Django, the "D" may be silent, but Zorro's "Z" will speak loud enough for the both of them.

(W) Bruce Jones & Various (A) Leonardo Manco

There's a war coming to the City of Angels. In tunnels beneath the city, in the dark alleys among the homeless, demons lurk and Lucifer bides his time. One man knows. One man sees. One man walks those dark streets. Father Daniel Beckett's seen demons and he's spoken to the Devil, but he's never seen an angel and he's never spoken to God. Obsessed and driven as much by betrayal as righteousness and anger as redemption, he walks the smoke-filled encampments of lost souls like Dante's nine rings of the Inferno. He is God's warrior at war with God. With this step into the comic book world, John Carpenter brings it all to the serial world he's loved since childhood. False Memories

Although they were best friends in high school, Nakano and Tsuda haven't talked in ten years. Which may have a little something to do with the fact that not only were they more than best friends, but also that Tsuda broke Nakano's heart, leaving him to pick up the pieces. Now that they've been thrown back together thanks to a work project, Nakano is determined to put the past behind him, and both men decide to keep their relationship strictly professional. The question is, can they?

MONO #1

(W) Liam Sharp
(A/CA) Ben Wolstenholme
"From the Boer War, through the First and Second World War, the Cold War and beyond, Mono was there...where no one else could go..." The ape-human hybrid secret agent and Queen's assassin, possessed of a deadly prehensile tail and "the strength of twelve men," made his debut in the pulps of the 1930s and enjoyed a brief revival in the late 1960s and 70s. But can it be that the fiction is closer to historic fact than was ever previously guessed? Now a series of tales, told in hand-written journals and reported first-hand by those that knew him, reveal Mono as a dual-natured and conflicted adventurer — savage and noble; civilized, but ultimately untamable. God Is Disappointed in You is for people who would like to read the Bible... if only it would cut to the chase. Stripped of its arcane language and interminable passages, every book of the Bible is condensed down to its core message, in no more than a few pages each. Written by Mark Russell with cartoons by New Yorker cartoonist Shannon Wheeler, God Is Disappointed in You is a frequently hilarious, often shocking, but always accurate retelling of the Bible, including the parts selectively left out by Sunday School teachers and church sermons. Irreverent yet faithful, this book is a must-read for anyone who wants to see past the fog of religious agendas and cultural debates to discover what the Bible really says. (STK612747)

MARVEL COMICS IN THE 1980S SC

(W) Keith Dallas

TwoMorrows Publishing presents Marvel Comics in the 1980s, the third volume in Pierre Comtois' heralded series, which covers Marvel's final historical phase. The 1980s saw Stan Lee's retreat to the West Coast, Jim Shooter's rise and fall as editor-in-chief, the twin triumphs of Frank Miller and John Byrne, the challenge of independent publishers, and the weakening hold of the Comics Code Authority that led to the company's creative downfall. Comics such as the Chris Claremont/John Byrne X-Men, Frank Miller's Daredevil, the new wave of dark heroes such as Wolverine and the Punisher, and more are all covered, in analytic detail and often irreverent manner. The 1980s represented years of upheaval in the comics industry, so expect a bumpy ride in the 1980s decade that marked the beginning of the end of Marvel Comics as you knew them! (STK654289)

As a penciler and cover artist, Carmine Infantino was a major force in defining the Silver Age of comics, co-creating the modern Flash and resuscitating Batman. As art director and publisher, he steered DC Comics through the late 1960s and 1970s. Carmine Infantino: Penciler, Publisher, Provocateur shines a light on the artist's life, career, and contemporaries, and uncovers details about the comics industry never made public until now. The hardcover edition includes custom endleaves, plus a 16-page color section not found in the softcover edition. (STK402933) (APR101099)

EEL MANSIONS GN

(W/A/CA) Derek Van Gieson

A funny, heady, noir inflected neo-satanic conspiracy that reaches all the way down to the origins of comics. Eel Mansions, Derek Van Gieson's first full-length graphic novel, is a supernatural soap opera noir. Set in Mill City: a grimy place inhabited by new wave satanists, secret agents, booze-hounds, record-store clerks, conspiracy theorists, murderers, and cartoonists. Derek Van Gieson skillfully unweaves a knotted sweater of intrigue, suspense, and dark humor. (STK653605) (C: 1-0-0)

AREA 51: THE GRAPHIC HISTORY OF AMERICA'S MOST SECRET MILITARY INSTALLATION GN

(W) Dwight Jon Zimmerman (A/CA) Greg Scott

Though nearly everyone has heard of it, almost no one has known anything about it — until now. Located in the remote Nevada desert near the dry bed of Groom Lake, Area 51 is the most famous military installation in the world that doesn't "officially" exist. In Area 51, author Dwight Jon Zimmerman and artist Greg Scott unravel the real history, minus the aliens and sci-fi movie plots, revealing in detail how for more than 60 years, the CIA, the U.S. Air Force, and aerospace company Lockheed Martin have all used Area 51 as a staging ground for test flights of experimental or highly classified aircrafts. This first-of-its-kind graphic history strips away the fantastical aspects of this mysterious location and establishes the actual, significant history made there. (STK653604)

DAVE SIM: CONVERSATIONS SC

(W/A/CA) Dave Sim

In 1977, Dave Sim began to self-publish Cerebus, one of the earliest and most significant independent comics, which ran for 300 issues and ended, as Sim had planned from early on, in 2004. What few interviews Sim gave often pushed the limits of what an interview might be in much the same way that Cerebus pushed the limits of what a comic might be. In interviews Sim is generous, expansive, provocative, and sometimes even antagonistic. While the interviews range from very general, career-spanning explorations of his complex work and ideas, to tightly focused discussions on specific details of Cerebus, all the interviews contained herein are engaging and revealing. The book includes 35 line illustrations selected from Chaykin, as well. He was an early pioneer in the graphic novel format in the 1970s, and his groundbreaking sci-fi satire American Flagg! was an essential contribution to the maturation of the comic book as a vehicle for social commentary in the 1980s. NEIL GAIMAN: THE ART OF NEIL GAIMAN: A VISUAL BIOGRAPHY HC

Neil Gaiman is one of the best-loved authors in the world today, a creative force in comics, fiction, and the movies and TV, a serial award-winner, and a social media phenomenon whose every work is a guaranteed number-one bestseller. Told in Neil's own words and enriched with visuals from his own archive, Hayley Campbell brilliantly evokes the literary and comics scene of 1980s London and places pop culture milestones in the context of a busy, multistranded creative life, making sense of Gaiman's diverse career, relating it to his storytelling gifts, his talent for being in the right place at the right time, and his passionate drive to, as he himself has put it, "Make Good Art." NEIL GAIMAN: THE TRUTH IS A CAVE IN THE BLACK MOUNTAINS HC

Beautifully illustrated by renowned artist Eddie Campbell, this is a four-color edition of Neil Gaiman's award-winning novelette "The Truth is a Cave in the Black Mountains," a haunting story of family, the otherworld, and a search for hidden treasure. This gorgeous full-color illustrated book version was born of a unique collaboration between writer Neil Gaiman and artist Eddie Campbell. In August 2010, the story was performed in the concert hall of the Sydney Opera House to a sell-out crowd; Gaiman read his tale live as Campbell's magnificent artwork was presented, scene by scene, on large screens. MONOGRAM: LI'L COFFIN 1/24-SCALE MODEL KIT

The Li'l Coffin Show Rod was made exclusively for Monogram Models in the 1960s. It was based on a 1932 Ford two-door sedan and entered at the Oakland Roadster Show, the premier rod show in the nation. It was "Top Custom Car" in 1963. Its most distinguishing feature is the cantilever roof which does not require any front support. The Li'l Coffin was powered by a 1954 De Soto engine with 8 carbonators. The changes to the original 1932 Ford Sedan were extensive. The top was chopped and the body was sectioned 3 inches and then channeled by 10 inches. The 1/24-scale kit features positionable wheels and a standing skeleton figure. Paint and glue required. (STK654548) Scheduled to ship in November 2014. (89/854183) (C: 0-1-1)

STAR TREK

FEATURED ITEM fi

STAR TREK: KLINGON BAT'LETH PROP REPLICA

Klingon oral history holds that the first bat'leth was forged circa 625 CE by Kahless, who dropped a lock of his hair into the lava from the Kri'stak Volcano, then plunged that fiery lock into the lake of Lursor and twisted it to form a blade. After forging that weapon, he used it to defeat Molor and, in so doing, united Qo'noS. The name bat'leth itself means "Sword of Honor" in the Klingon tongue. Constructed of high-grade aircraft aluminium and featuring a genuine split-leather grip, this 1/1-scale prop replica measures 43" long, is 1/4" thick, and weighs an impressive 4 pounds. This is truly a substantial display piece and comes with a cold-cast resin display stand and Certificate of Authenticity. (STK654644) Scheduled to ship in November 2014. STAR WARS

FEATURED ITEM fi

EFX STAR WARS: BIKER SCOUT HELMET PROP REPLICA

The Imperial Scout Troopers were a specially trained garrison of the Stormtroopers. They were outfitted with light armor which made them more mobile and efficient for their reconnaissance duties. The signature piece of equipment utilized by the Scout Troopers was the 74-Z Speeder Bike, thus earning them the nickname "Biker Scouts." The Scout Troopers were first seen in the Star Wars saga in Episode VI: Return of the Jedi on the forest moon of Endor. The Biker Scout helmet and armor was designed by Nilos Rodis-Jamero. As with many of the Imperial helmets made, this helmet was made in vacuum formed ABS plastic. The symbols and markings on the helmet were hand applied decals. You can see the lineage of these elements to the original stormtrooper helmets first seen in Star Wars Episode IV: A New Hope. This helmet had the unique feature of the pivoting visor. The unique symbol seen on the side of the visor was designed by ILM's Pete Ronzani. The symbol was actually a logo he designed for his own personal business card. The EFX master patterns were made from these original wood patterns, thus there was no digital scanning or 3D modeling used to produce this helmet. Thus, this is the most accurate reproduction of the Scout Trooper helmet possible. We even had an original decal sheet of the symbols and markings to produce our decals. (STK653389) Scheduled to ship in November 2014. (1859/0114120) (C: 1-1-0) NOTE: Available only in the United States, Canada, and U.S. Territories.

VOLUMES 1 – 12

WARHAMMER 40K: HORUS HERESY VOLUMES 1-12 SC BOX SET
(W) Dan Abnett
A new Imperium is being forged across the galaxy. After millennia of isolation and localised conflict, the Emperor of Mankind has risen to rule holy Terra, and now commands his Space Marine Legions in reuniting all the lost colonies of humanity. At the forefront of his armies are the primarchs — post human warriors and leaders without equal, created from his own genetic template. This Great Crusade is all but over when Horus, the Emperor's first primarch son and Warmaster of the Legions, becomes part of a wider plot by the primordial forces of Chaos to corrupt mankind and bring fresh ruin to the galaxy. Swaying some of his brothers to his cause and facing others openly upon the field of battle, Horus has set his eye upon the Throne of Terra itself, and will not hesitate to let the Imperium devour itself in the bloodiest civil war in the history of mankind! Now you can own the first twelve volumes of the series with the Horus Heresy Box Set! (STK654778) (C: 0-1-2)

WARHAMMER 40K: SALAMANDERS: REBIRTH HC
(W) Nick Kyme
Five Years have passed since war came to Nocturne. Third Company, still feeling its losses, recovers its strength. And though a small party have ventured out in search of a certain errant fire-born, it is the Salamanders of Fifth Company who must wage war. On Heletine, the Black Legion has come in the name of Chaos and only Brother-Captain Drakgaard's warriors stand in the way of their dark glory. Victory for the Imperium hinges on the alliance between the Salamanders and The Sisters of the Ebon Chalice, warrior zealots and devout servants of the Ecclesiarchy. But there is more to this Promethean War than conquest, and only as the conflict grinds on are the true motives of the enemy revealed. (STK639608) (C: 0-1-2)

SOUNDTRACKS

THE CAT O' NINE TAILS ORIGINAL SOUNDTRACK

IL GATTO A NOVE CODE

From AMS/Cinevox. Il gatto a nove code (The cat o 'nine tails), filmed in 1971, is the second film by Dario Argento, and the collaboration with the composer and conductor Ennio Morricone, already known for his work on Sergio Leone's western movies, is here renewed. When the previous soundtrack for Argento's first movie had proved to be a really tough listen, here Morricone goes even further, creating a really dissonant and avant-garde sound, with practically one single basis theme in the form of a few essential bass guitar notes. Like many other soundtracks of those years, The cat o 'nine tails had to wait more than 20 years to see the light in its entirety, with a single 45rpm released at the time! Today, this score is reissued by AMS Records in LP format with gatefold cover. The first 500 copies come in yellow vinyl. (STK654283) (C: 0-1-1)

EL TOPO
A FILM BY ALEXANDRO JODOROWSKY

EL TOPO ORIGINAL SOUNDTRACK

From Real Gone Music. 1970's El Topo was Mexican surrealist Alejandro Jodorowsky's bloody surreal take on the Western genre. Funded by John Lennon and Yoko Ono, this film is like a Sergio Leone film on a serious dose of brown acid. The soundtrack is comprised of 18 tracks composed by Jodorowsky and John Barham inspired by both the soundtrack work of Ennio Morricone and Nino Rota. Full of flutes and droning horns, accordions and organs and twisted Mariachi styles. The music is as visceral as buzzing flies around the rotting corpse of an evil marauder. (STK654151) (C: 0-1-1)

JULY'S BEST-SELLING TITLE: ROCKET RACCOON #1

Marvel's Guardians of the Galaxy is yet another Summertime blockbuster for Marvel Studios, and one of the big (little?) reasons that it has found so much success is definitely the diminutive ne'er-do-well, Rocket Raccoon! Rocket's all-new ongoing series, written and illustrated by fan-favorite creator Skottie Young, is just the stuff the Raccoon ordered!

SILVER

Dark Planet

Do you have a penchant for whip-cracking, Indiana Jones type treasure hunters? Perhaps you are a pulp-era adventure kind of comic reader who likes no nonsense dames, super-secret societies, and enough action and intrigue to keep you turning pages? Or maybe you are simply looking for a new supernatural mystery that builds upon Bram Stoker's groundbreaking vampire novel? Dark Planet's debut title Silver is all this and more!

Follow [illegible] James Finnigan and his team (including Van Helsing's granddaughter Rosalynd Sledge) as they search for Count Dracula's greatest mythical treasure: The Silver Dragon! Fans of the Indiana Jones films and Tomb Raider video game series will quickly take a liking to Stephan Franck's quick-paced action-packed writing, and his heavy inked, atmospheric Mignola-esque art style will easily transport you into the 1930s world that he has created for his eclectic group of vampire-fighting treasure hunters.

If you are looking for action, adventure, and danger (as well as some clever humor) this is a book I would pick up and [illegible] I would keep an eye out for.

JOSE PIMIENTA

THE LEG

Top Shelf Productions

Writer Van Jensen (Pinocchio Vampire Slayer) and artist Jose Pimienta (A Friendly Game) team up to give comics [illegible] unlikely hero, the disembodied leg of the immensely famous Mexican president, Santa Ana. Follow the leg (yes, just the leg) as he combats cantankerous criminals and battles brutish brujas in a mission to save the current Mexican president and atone for the notorious actions that his corporeal body was known for at the end of his life and political career.

Beautifully crafted, The Leg is a story that seamlessly blends history, the supernatural, and fiction into a colorful whirlwind of graphic narration that is a fun (and at many times touching) adventure story. Regardless if you are familiar or not with Santa Ana's fight to gain Mexico's independence from Spain or his pivotal role in the Mexican War, this is a graphic novel that anyone can enjoy simply because it is a solid story with some of the most striking and emotive coloring I have seen in a long-time. Van Jensen and Jose Pimienta [illegible] and truly put together a wonderful [illegible] for something a little different than the typical comic fare!

DJANGO / ZORRO #1

Dynamite Entertainment

Quentin Tarantino's Django Unchained was the latest of the filmmaker's many successful and critically acclaimed films in his mounting catalog of work. Dynamite Entertainment brings comic fans the first all-new, original story of the man named Django, and his first tale presents another familiar hero of the West.

When Django has a fateful encounter with the wealthy and mysterious Don Diego de la Vega, neither can fully comprehend the others' potential at first glance. In short order, both Django and de la Vega (the man otherwise known as Zorro) quickly realize that a partnership could prove invaluable when it comes to taming the brutality of the Wild West. De La Vega, a man on a mission to find corruption, will hire Django, a man without a path, to seek out De La Vega's next target for justice.

Django creator Quentin Tarantino teams with famed comic writer Matt Wagner to bring back both heroes to the world of comics with the team-up you never saw coming. For Django, the "D" may be silent, but Zorro's "Z" will speak loud enough for the both of them.

MOOMIN DELUXE ANNIVERSARY EDITION HC IN SLIPCASE

Drawn & Quarterly

There is so much to learn about Moomin. Important things like: Moomin is a troll; Moomin loves The Snork Maiden who's very similar to a troll; and Moomin lives with his parents MoominMamma and MoominPappa who are -- but should not have been assumed to be -- also trolls.

These key facts will surely help the uninitiated, but too much more explanation tends to bog down the simple joy of these comics. It would be like trying to define Peanuts, Calvin and Hobbes, or Totoro. Once you have the names and relationships, their creator has done such a masterful job making the characters play on paper that it's just best to let the characters speak for themselves with their own wonderful, quirky, honest voices.

Drawn and Quarterly must agree with my assessment, because after releasing 20 different, sparkling Moomin volumes over the past 7 years (all still in print!), they're bringing forth an amazing new collection: the Moomin Deluxe Anniversary Edition hardcover. It's all in celebration of Moomin's fabulously talented creator, Tove Jansson. It's been 100 years since her birth and this collection pulls together more than 450 pages of her life's work. Recognized internationally as a children's author of the highest order, she was also an author, illustrator, and satirist. Her Moomin career began during the Second World War, when she was determined to create something that brought happiness. And what happiness!

Come pick up a collection full of happiness in special happiness slipcover and join myself and Drawn and Quarterly in wishing Tove Jansson a very happy centenary!

HOWARD NOSTRAND'S NIGHTMARES

IDW Publishing

When you think of horror comics, the gory days of the EC Comics come to mind for many older fans, to some Creepy and Eerie magazines, while House of Mystery and The Witching Hour scared readers decades later. In all cases scary stories were illustrated by some of the biggest names in comic book history. Classic stories were illustrated by artist like Jack Davis, Graham Ingels, Steve Ditko, Bob Powell, and Howard Nostrand, an artist that made you want to read the Harvey comics horror titles.

My first real knowledge of Howard Nostrand was reading the graphic story magazine featuring an interview with him. At that point I began looking for comics with his work, much like how I got hooked on Alex Toth. Nostrand's style was a mix of the Jack Davis cartoon style but with a slickness and moody finish associated with Wood, Lee Elias, and Bob Powell. While some consider him the king of the swipes, Nostrand could take other artists' ideas and make them uniquely his own

While there have been other publishers that have reprinted some of Nostrand's work, this edition is reproduced from the original art, no small feat given the age of these stories. If you look at the quality of the IDW Artist Editions then you know what the quality of this book will be.

Howard Nostrand's Nightmares from IDW Publishing is a welcome addition to a library already filled with archives of EC Comics, ACG, Fiction House, and Harvey Horror collections.
